

Employers Match Funding Scheme Advice

Thank you for working so hard to fundraise for Cycle for Autism.

Your employer may match the amazing fundraising you have achieved. Some employers have a match funding scheme that supports their employee's charitable fundraising.

It is worth asking if your employer could match your Cycle for Autism fundraising.

This would be brilliant as it doubles your fundraising amount and your employer can help to meet their Corporate and Social Responsibility objectives. We can also give them a big social media thank you shout out which will be good publicity for them too!

You can direct them to our web site <https://www.cycleforautism.co.uk> to give them more information about the Cycle for Autism campaign.

Please give them this document, which has all the information they will need. (If your employer needs any more information please contact us, we will be happy to help)

They can also provide the company name and social media handles to us so we can publicly thank you and them for their generosity on our social media platforms if they so wish.
